

1 Gee's Restaurant. English, quite pricey, but you get to eat in a greenhouse.
<https://www.geesrestaurant.co.uk/>

2 The Gardener's Arms, pub. <http://www.thegarden-oxford.co.uk/>

3 Browns, restaurant. Has a gluten free menu. Fairly pricey English and European menu <https://www.browns-restaurants.co.uk/restaurants/southeast/oxford/food>

4 The Old Parsonage, a bit pricey but does claim to do the best afternoon tea and scones in Oxford.

5 A small parade of shops, the closest to St. Anne's. From South to North: Woodstock Road Chemists. East West Provisions, general store (snacks, drinks and newspapers).

6 The Royal Oak, pub.

North Parade Avenue, from West to East

Gardener's Arms, pub. <https://www.gardenersarms-northparade.com/>
Barefoot, coffee shop
Viny's Café and Viny's North (also a café)
The Rabbit Hole – closed for refurbishment
Little Venice, pizzeria
Rose and Crown, pub. <https://www.roseandcrownoxford.com/>
Jee Saheb, Indian. <https://www.jeesaheb.co.uk/#/>
General Store, snacks and drinks
Brew, coffee shop. <http://www.brewoxford.co.uk/>

Walton Street, going North to South, from St. Bernard's Road to Little Clarendon Street

The Victoria, pub. <http://www.victorianpub.co.uk/>
Peppers Burgers
Zheng, Chinese restaurant. <http://www.zhengoxford.co.uk/>
VG, food store and off-licence
Barefoot Café, coffee and cakes. <http://www.barefootoxford.co.uk/>
101, espresso café.
Brasserie Blanc, French. <https://brasserieblanc.com/restaurants/oxford/>
Mamma Mia, pizza and pasta. <http://www.mammamiapizzeria.co.uk/>
Manos, Greek deli. <https://www.manosfoodbar.com/>
Jericho Grill
Jamal's, Indian. <https://jamals-saffron.co.uk/#/>
Branca, café/deli. <https://www.branca.co.uk/>
Jericho Café. <http://www.thejerichocafe.co.uk/>
The Standard, Indian. <http://www.standardoxford.com/>
Jericho Tavern, pub. <https://www.thejerichooxford.co.uk/>
Giggling Squid, Thai. <https://www.gigglingssquid.com/restaurant/oxford/>
Jude the Obscure, pub. <https://www.greeneking-pubs.co.uk/pubs/oxfordshire/jude-the-obscure/>
Co-Op Food, general, sandwiches, snacks and drinks
Raoul's Bar & Liquor shop. <http://www.raoulsbar.com/>
Opera Café. https://www.facebook.com/operacafeoxford#_=_
LJ bar and lounge. <https://lovejericho-oxford.co.uk/>
Tree Artisan Café, tea, coffee and pastries

Little Clarendon Street, from West to East

Wild Honey organic health foods
Jericho Cheese Co. Probably not a café, but who cares? It does cheese. <https://jerichocheese.co.uk/>
Coffee, a combined art space and café. <https://website--25491848474887188129-cafe.business.site/>
Moshi, Japanese food
Gail's, soup, salads and sandwiches. <https://gailsbread.co.uk/bakeries/jericho/>
Widing's, wine bar and bar snacks
Tapas Al-Andalus, Spanish. <https://tapasoxford.co.uk/>
Pierre Victoire, French cuisine. <https://www.pierrevictoire.co.uk/>
Oxford Wine Co. Good for upmarket party booze. Please let Ops know if you have been here and are hosting a room party
Angels Cocktail Bar
Duke of Cambridge, pub. <https://www.dukebar.com/>
G&D's ice cream parlour. Expect to see quite a few TS people here. <http://www.gdcafe.com/website/index.php>

Woodstock Road, South to North, from Little Clarendon Street to Observatory Street

Taylor's Deli. <https://www.taylorsoxford.co.uk/>
Fusion House Chinese takeaway. http://fusionhouse.co.uk/?utm_source=gmb&utm_medium=referral
Brown's No.3 on the map
The Royal Oak, pub. No.6 on the map <https://www.theroyaloakoxford.co.uk/>

Bookshops

Oxfam bookshop, further South on Woodstock Road/ St. Giles, just after Little Clarendon Street.
The Last Bookshop, head South on Walton Street, past Oxford Wine Café and the junction with Little Clarendon Street.